

A Paired validation scores

B Signed loss at every task switch

Left: points are five validation seeds; diamonds are means; thin lines connect the same seed across configurations.

Right: positive = loss; negative = improvement. Each seed contributes three switches; their mean can conceal individual losses.